

how far down

why is there always more to remember why is there always more to reveal why is there always more to heal when will it ever end.

how deep is this river I'm trying to cross how fast
how wide
how far to the other side.

how many more echoes still haunt this canyon how many more secrets in shallow graves how many more soldiers will die in the forest how many more houses will burn to the ground.

how far down do I have to go how far down do I have to dive how far down do I have to dig how far down is up.
