

red queen

I invite my demons
into daylight
so I can meet
the ones who drive me.

I let them play
and have their way with me so I can find out who they are.

the red queen
queen of them all
drops me to my knees I'll do anything to please her.

her needs
are my needs
laying myself down for her submitting to her will giving myself away to her until I nearly vanish feels like love.

so desperate to be seen without my covers
to have that mother I never had.

take my head mother
take my balls
I will be your good boy
I will wait
on my knees
for you to fill
my empty mouth.

I'll wait forever
I'll never stop
bind my hands mother
take my tongue
I'll never leave you
and I'll never complain.
